Becoming a Rotary member connects you with a diverse group of professionals who share your drive to give back. Through regular meetings and events, you'll: Discuss your community's needs and develop creative ways to meet them. Connect with other leaders who are changing the world. Rotary clubs continue to demonstrate their value by staying connected to members and responding to changing needs in the community.

- Friendship. In an increasingly complex world, Rotary maintains a simple philosophy - make friends in your own community and throughout the world.
- Giving back to the community. ...
- Fun and entertainment. ...
- Business development. ...
- Personal growth and development. ...
- Continued learning. ...
- Travel opportunities.

When we talk about membership we mean that you look at your Club and consider how you can Develop Your Club through 5 easy steps:

1. Health of the Club
2. Retention of existing members
3. Educate and Train existing and new members for future leadership
4. Public Image focus locally
5. Attract new members

Club Development Plan should have the following strategic priorities

1. Increase membership diversity
2. Develop skilled and informed Rotarians:
3. Support innovative and flexible clubs:
4. Create strategic Partnerships
5. Enhance brand recognition, understanding and trust
6. Identify ambassadors to promote membership of Rotary:
7. Rejuvenate website, social media and public image assets
8. Support non-Rotarians to attending conferences.

"Keeping current club members is just as important as bringing in new ones. The key is to adapt and change," Make sure club meetings, service activities, and social events are interesting, fun, and worthwhile. Initiate more hands-on projects so club members will feel that they're making a difference.

Be alert to the symptoms that lead to resignation. Club leaders should be considerate to members' personal problems. The new century of Rotary requires and permits a new vision of fellowship and service," A club composed entirely of executives and professionals under the age of 40.

A club in an ethnic or minority section of the community, with members who share common economic and cultural interests.
